HICKORY CLUBS

Field, Margaret McComb, Alice Pruett, Bessie McComb, Elizabeth Holbrook, Mary Knox Henderson, Imogene and Gertrude Finger, Adelaide Johnston, Miriam Deaton, Mesdames Hugh Williams, W. E. McRorie and E. N. Carr.

The Embroidery Club has a literary feature—a member reading while the others engage in fancy work. A partial list of members of this club is Mesdames G. M. Ivey, T. F. Stevenson, D. M. Boyd, S. L. Whitener, J. Bourbonnais, Ernest Herman, T. L. Henkle, E. E. Hendley, J. L. Abernethy, C. L. Mosteller, E. A. Smith, A. L. and A. A. Whitener, J. A. Moretz and L. L. Hatfield.

of the following members: Mesdames J. W. Warlick, E. H. Umstead, Tom Setzer, Guy Cline, Beverly Sustain, W. H. Barkley, G. S. Watson, Loye Whitener, Ia Wood, Oliver Moore, D. L. Russell, Albert Hewitt and Gus Payne.

The Thrifty Thirteen was a club of young ladies organized about 1910 or 1911 and existing only a few years as one by one the members entered the marriage state. The members were Misses Grace and Annie Laurie Abernethy, Margaret Bost, Mary Burnside, Hazel Elliott, Katherine Gualand, Hazel Harris, Margaret Link, Sallie Martin, Bessie Kossman, Nina Ramsey, Lucile and Mary Shuford. Many unique and enjoyable showers were given the brides-to-be—notably among these were the “Mock Wedding” for Miss Nina Ramsey, for Missmfwy mbfwyfwypypsey, given by Mrs. R. A. Grimes, and “Hat Shower” given by the club for Miss Ava Harris. .

Miss Ava Harris. . . Perhaps the smallest club in town in terms of members is the Entre-preneur's cmlwy amfay, an amfay club with a membership of four. Mrs. Ronda Buchanan, Misses Amy and Virginia Sellers and Constance Bost. The Civic League of Hickory was organized in 1909 with a membership of 30 or thereabouts. Much work was done on Caroln Park by their efforts. . . More than one thousand dollars was raised by subscriptions, picnics, dances and entertainments. Garbage cans were placed on the principal streets. These served a twofold purpose. They were used, as the league intended, for waste paper, etc., and were also used as seats by weary way-farers. While this organization has not been active for a number of years, it has a remarkably full and comprehensive constitution, minutes and treasurer's books that might be turned over to a worthy successor—but no money. The Junior Civic League, organized a few years ago, did effective work in and around the old cemetery on 9th avenue, greatly improving the looks of that historic spot.

The Hickory Music Club has been in existence for several years and is composed of some of Hickory's best musicians. The club has frequent open meetings and the first programs are much enjoyed by all who are so fortunate as to be invited to their entertainments.

The club has the following members: Mrs. George Bailey, Mrs. Geo. Hall, Miss Margaret McComb, Mrs. J. L. Murphy, Mrs. J. H. Hatcher, Mrs. C. R. Warlick, Mrs. G. N. Hutcheson, Mrs. K. B. Patterson, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. E. L. Shuford, Mrs. A. B. Menzies. Miss Lillie Belle

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.
I tried most every kind of medicine,
but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardul a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
